You have registered a special service - here are some important information in advance:

1. If you booked your flight through a tour operator, please note that your special service reservation is not part of your tour operator booking. Please inform us about any changes in your tour operator booking, so that we can adjust your special service reservation.
2. The reservation confirmation issued for special services is only valid for the above-mentioned flight(s). If you change or cancel your booking, you must reserve the special service again.
3. The airline company reserves the right to exchange an advance seat reservation with one of a similar type within the booked class of service.
4. In case of non-compliance with the mentioned conditions of conveyance or in case you intentionally have given wrong information concerning the weight or dimensions, our Check-in staff and the flight crew is entitled to refuse to carry the pet / excess baggage / bulky baggage / sports equipment or child restraint system on-board even if it has been confirmed. The airline company cannot be held responsible for any damage incurred directly or indirectly as a result.
5. In accordance with international agreements, airlines have limited liability for luggage that is handed in. Therefore we would advise you in your own interest to take out separate insurance to avoid having insufficient coverage should a claim be made.
6. All special services are subject to the General Terms of Business and Carriage (GTBC). These and other Information can be found on the Internet at www.condor.com.
